

Book Presentation and Discussion
Concentration Camps and Genocide in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Bosniaks Association Lily cordially invites you to the book presentation:
"Wounded I Am More Awake: Finding Meaning after Terror"

by Dr. Esad Boskailo *

Clinical Associate Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Arizona College of Medicine – Phoenix

Followed by a presentation on "Suffering and Genocide during the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina"

by Professor Emir Ramic *

Director of Institute for Research of Genocide Canada on

March 31, 2012

At 6:00 pm

Address:

1416 E Collins Blvd
Richardson TX 75081

RSVP is appreciated by March 24th.

espaha@tx.rr.com

Contact person:
Enver Spahalic
214-718-5860

LJILJAN - DALLAS
Bosnjacko Udrusenje

Bosniaks Association Lily

March 31, 2012

Reception and Welcome

6:00 pm

Program:

7:00 – 7:30 pm Book Presentation Dr. Boskailo

7:30 – 8:00 pm Genocide in Bosnia Prof. Ramic

8:00 – 8:30 pm Panel Discussion

8:30 – 9:00 pm Book Signing

9:00 – 10:00 pm Refreshments

Dr. Esad Boskailo is a Clinical Associate Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Arizona College of Medicine-Phoenix and Associate Director Psychiatry Residency at the Maricopa Integrated Health System. Trained in the family medicine in Bosnia and Herzegovina, he works with the survivors of trauma from domestic abuse to war.

Prof. Emir Ramic is a Director of Institute for Research of Genocide Canada (IGC). IGC is a public scientific institution engaged in analysis of crimes against peace, crime of genocide, and other grave breaches of international law from the historical, legal, sociological, criminology, economic, demographic, psychological, political, cultural, medical, environmental, and other aspects of relevance for the complete research of crimes. IGC was established in 2009 based on Decision of the Institute for Research of Crimes Against Humanity and International Law from University of Sarajevo.